January 2010

Arrest's – 32 MV Stops- 191 Warnings- 165 Citations- 26 MV Collisions- 9 Parking Tickets- 16 Noteworthy arrests-

- January 7- Acting on a tip from the El Dorado County California Sheriffs Office, the Bow police arrested Keith Howard Mason, 43, as a Fugitive from Justice and False Reports to Law Enforcement. Bow Police were told that Mason may be residing at a residence in Bow. When officers went to the home, Mason provided them with what appeared to be a valid Wyoming drivers license. Upon further questioning, it was determined that though the Wyoming license was valid, the name and date of birth listed were fictitious. Mason was taken into custody without incident and is being held at the Merrimack County House of Corrections and is awaiting extradition to California for Grand Theft and a Probation Violation. The warrants out of California date back to 2000.
- January 10- Bow police arrested Richard Figari, 25 of Bow, for Driving While Intoxicated. Police responded to Dow Road for report of a motor vehicle collision. Upon arrival, police observed that a telephone poll had been split in two, and a vehicle lay overturned in a culvert nearby. The driver, Figari, and his passenger were both out of the vehicle and were not hurt. Figari was ultimately taken into custody for Driving while Intoxicated. Power in the area was disrupted for several hours while utility crews replaced the poll.

- January 14- Bow police arrested Anthony Valley, 46 of Bow, for Driving While Intoxicated and Operating after Suspension. At approximately 10:00 am, Bow police observed Valley's vehicle cross the double yellow line on Grandview Road and initiated a motor vehicle stop. During the stop, police noticed several signs of impairment and requested Valley to perform field sobriety tests which he ultimately failed. Valley's drivers license was also found to be suspended out of Massachusetts, and he does not have a New Hampshire drivers license.
- January 22- Bow police arrested a 17 year old male and charged him with three counts of theft from motor vehicles. Through investigation and subsequent interviews, it was determined that the 17 year old male was responsible for three separate car break-ins/thefts in the area of Clearview Drive and Robinson Road.
- January 25- Bow police arrested Kristi Matott, 39 of Concord, for Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated and Transporting Alcoholic Beverages. Just before noon, Bow police received a call from a concerned citizen that was following behind Matott's vehicle on Route 3A in Bow. According to the caller, Matott's vehicle was being driven erratically, and had reportedly crossed the double yellow line and fog line on several occasions. Bow police responded to the area and located the vehicle. After following behind the vehicle a short distance, police observed erratic operation and initiated a traffic stop. Matott told police that she had not been drinking and was on her way to pick up her children. She was arrested and charged with Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated as she was nearly three times the legal limit. Police also located several open containers of alcohol within the passenger area of the vehicle.
